Sacramental Information

Baptisms: Congratulations on the decision to baptize your child in the Catholic Faith! We are here to help you with the process. Please call or stop by the parish office and we will be happy to get you started. Travel plans for out of town guests should not be made until a date for the baptism is confirmed by the parish staff. A meeting with a priest may be required. We look forward to hearing from you.

Marriages: Please come by the parish office to start your marriage paperwork. Please allow six months to complete the paperwork. A wedding date cannot be set until a priest has been consulted.

Sick and Homebound: We are blessed to have a group of volunteers in our parish who are happy to bring Holy Communion to the sick, the hospitalized and the homebound. Please call the parish office to make arrangements. If you or your loved one would like for a priest to visit with the Sacrament of Anointing, please do not hesitate to call us.

An Unknown Time

Some in society have become very concerned about the end of the world. There are many late-night televangelists whose preaching is nearly completely focused on this topic. There are even entire book series dedicated to analyzing and making predictions about the “rapture” and “end times,” including who will be taken and who will be “left behind.” These fictionalized accounts and gross misinterpretations of scripture are well written, widely preached, and entertaining, but are wholly lacking in fundamental Biblical and Apostolic Truth as taught by Jesus himself.

The Truth is that the end of the world will eventually come, and those who are with God will live forever in Heaven, while those who choose otherwise in their lives, will endlessly suffer in Hell. What we can be most assured of, if history is any lesson at all, is that each one of us will die and make an individual account for our lives. We trust in the God who has no beginning and no end, the one who created everything out of nothing, the one who will preside at the final judgment in infinite love, mercy, justice, and forgiveness.

As Jesus says, “Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But of that day or hour, no one knows.” (NAB, MK 13:31-32) So, let us keep working out our salvation in our daily commitment to our Lord. The end of the world has not yet come, but we frequently encounter “ends” in our daily life. Each of these ends is accompanied by a new beginning, a new opportunity to love, a new invitation to grow, and a new call to draw closer to Jesus. Let us take advantage of these moments in our lives while time is still on our side.

Father, I know not when my life will end, nor do I know when your judgment will come. Give me your grace to end my current life of self-centeredness, pride, selfishness, foolishness, and egoism, so that I may begin to live for you alone, by loving you and loving my neighbor. Then, when I am confronted with my life's choices on that unknown day, I may rest in the assurance that I chose you. Amen.

Stress (Part One)

If stress reaches extremely high levels then stress becomes dangerous. Assess your stress levels. Are your muscles tight or is your jaw sore from grinding or clenching your teeth at night? Are you feeling overwhelmed or fatigued? Are you anxious, moody or do you have headaches and trouble sleeping? These are red flags that indicate you might be under too much stress. Next week will address what you can do.

XXXIII Domingo Obedecer la única palabra que dávida

Las palabras de Cristo, presencia auténtica del propio Cristo, no pasan nunca en vano. No sólo no pierden actualidad, sino que, si se las escucha con los oídos del alma, nunca dejan de producir sus frutos en el corazón del hombre. Pero para eso, para que se las escuche, hay que saber hacer callar a otras voces. A veces éstas proceden de nuestros egoísmos e instintos. En otras ocasiones son voces que están fuera de nosotros y que pugnan por desbancar a Dios del primer lugar de nuestro corazón. Conviene, pues, examinar nuestra conciencia para descubrir si son las palabras de Cristo, su mensaje transmitido a través de la Iglesia, el que guía nuestra vida o si son otros -los famosos, los políticos, los periodistas- los que han ocupado su lugar. Sólo las palabras de Cristo, la “palabra de Dios” produce vida. Sólo ella nos dice la verdad, incluso aquella parte de la verdad que nos escuece, que desnuda ante nuestros ojos nuestros pecados, esos que querríamos que permanecieran ocultos. Hagamos, por lo tanto, un esfuerzo por acoger la palabra del Señor íntegramente, sin permitir que nadie la censure en nuestro corazón o fuera de nosotros. Y, después, intentemos con la mayor seriedad posible llevarla a la práctica.
